

1ST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF DEPOSIT

Marsha Muller, CLP

The church has been picked for the historic registers. A news article was released in the September 16, 2019 edition of “The Daily Star”. The First Presbyterian Church of Deposit was built in 1880 and was designed by architect Lawrence B. Valk of New York City, who was a designer of Protestant churches.

The First Presbyterian Church of Deposit recently had some much needed repairs done to the roof.

First Pres is very active in the community and the Deposit Council of Churches. We participated in the Baccalaureate Service held at the Episcopal Church. There is an Ecumenical Thanksgiving Service, usually the Tuesday of Thanksgiving week and all the churches take turns hosting the Lenten Soup Supper Services.

If you are in the area, feel free to join us for worship on Sunday mornings at 9 am. Be sure and check us out on Facebook!

Come to the Table!

Come to the Table 2019 is approaching! We are happy to be returning to the Stony Point Center for what will be a powerful time of gathering, praying, sharing, learning and worshiping. This year, we'll consider the moment in which we are living, remembering that each generation is born for their time with all of its challenges and possibilities. For Such a Time as This: Crisis, Change, Opportunity (<https://www.synodne.org/cttt>) is the theme that will frame our time together—considering the ways in which each person's perspective brings an interpretation to a particular circumstance and shapes each community's response.

Registration is open! (<https://www.synodne.org/cttt-registration-2019>)

The latest issue of the Justice & Peace Close-Up highlights the multifaceted work of Presbyterian Disaster Assistance (PDA). In recent months, staff and volunteers have walked alongside communities struck by natural and human-made tragedy, as well as advocating for the rights of immigrants and refugees. This fall, PDA is also celebrating several milestones for its award-winning documentary film outlet, Story Ministry, showing the power of story to raise awareness and spark discussion and action.

2019 Standard Mileage Rates

WASHINGTON — The Internal Revenue Service today issued the 2019 optional standard mileage rates used to calculate the deductible costs of operating an automobile for business, charitable, medical or moving purposes.

Beginning on Jan. 1, 2019, the standard mileage rates for the use of a car (also vans, pickups or panel trucks) will be:

- 58 cents per mile driven for business use, up 3.5 cents from the rate for 2018
- 20 cents per mile driven for medical or moving purposes, up 2 cents from the rate for 2018, and
- 14 cents per mile driven in service of charitable organizations.
