We Are Witnesses: The Book of Acts

With Emrys Tyler,
Pastor of Nineveh Presbyterian Church
As Taught at the 2015 Hartwick Summer Institute of Theology

"The Book of Acts describes the movement of the Spirit to carry the good news of Jesus Christ outward across the world. But from the beginning, the Spirit uses human beings as agents of the message. The core of their announcement is what they have seen, what they know, what they have experienced: They are witnesses of the risen Jesus Christ. Join us for an exploration of the theme of 'witness' in the Book of Acts--its appearance in the text, its significance for the early Church, and its import for us today."
